Station Information

Frequency: 97.1 MHZ FM Stereo

Power: 26,500 Watts

Tower Location: Located on Blacktail Mountain, ten miles south of Kalispell, 6937 feet above sea level.

Target Demographic: men (25-54), women (25-54). Specialized weekend programming targeted to 18-35 year old men, women, and children.

Format: Adult Contemporary Christian music and the Christian classics.

Contests/Giveaways: We like to have fun and give you our listeners a chance to call in and win various prizes. There are just a couple guidelines we would like to pass along.

- Being courteous: One winner per household within a consecutive 30 day period
- Storage: Prizes will be held for 30 days unless otherwise noted. Anything past 30 days will be placed back in the prize bin.
- KALS implies no representation or warranties to the winner regarding the prize.

Reach: KALS has been serving Northwest Montana since 1974. Reaching Eureka to the north, Libby to the west, Missoula to the south, and Cutbank to the east.

Translators: Polson - 99.3 FM.

KALS is a part of Your Network of Praise. See a list of our traslators , or visit the YNOP web site .

Internet Streaming: Listen in 24 hours a day!

News Source: SRN satellite news; Various MT, WY, ID, & ND News Organizations (cited during news)

KALS 97.1 FM

106 Cooperative Way, Suite 102

Kalispell, MT 59901

(406) 752-KALS (5257)

FAX: (406) 752-3416

Email: kals@kals.com

KALS is a member of the National Association of Broadcasters and the National Relgious Broadcasters